WHARTON UNDERGRADUATE CLASS OF 2014 - RISING JUNIORS
SUMMER 2012 PURSUITS REPORT

This report summarizes summer pursuits of students between sophomore and junior year. Student responses were collected using an online survey. Of the 673 Wharton students scheduled to graduate during the 2013 – 2014 academic year, 356 completed the survey (52.9% response rate). Of those, 319 students indicated whether their primary summer activity was full-time employment, part-time employment, or other activities.

Job Functions of Wharton Interns

Students interned in a variety of job functions. Many worked in financial services including investment banking, securities research, private equity, venture capital, investment management, non-banking financial analysis, and sales & trading. Marketing was also popular, with 15.8% interning in that field, as was consulting with 13.3% of students choosing it.

Chart is based on data from both full-time and part-time positions.

Over 94% of Wharton juniors participated in an internship over the previous summer. Other Wharton juniors pursued other activities such as classes, travel or independent research.
