ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

NEW Career Services Web Pages for PhDs and Postdocs

The Graduate Student and Postdoctoral Fellow Advising Team at Career Services recently launched a new website with comprehensive information on career development for PhD students and postdocs. Visit our pages on Preparing for Postdocs & Faculty Careers to view introductory information on preparing your application materials and interviewing and negotiating for academic jobs.

The Academic Job Search Handbook

The Academic Job Search Handbook is the comprehensive guide to finding a faculty position in any discipline. It moves step by step through the application process, from establishing relationships with advisors, positioning oneself in the market, learning about job openings, preparing CVs, cover letters, and other application materials, to negotiating offers, and includes sample documents from a diverse spectrum of successful applicants. Authored by two former Penn Career Services staff members, the book is available to Penn PhD students and alumni as well as current postdocs for the discounted price of $10. Visit the Career Services office to purchase a copy during normal business hours.

Advising Appointments and Mock Interviews

The best way to get personalized support in navigating the academic job search is by scheduling an appointment with a career advisor. Make a 30-minute individual advising appointment, a one-hour mock interview appointment, or a group advising appointment through Handshake or by giving us a call at 215 898 7530.

Customized Events and Workshops

Think your colleagues in your academic department or student group might benefit from a tailored program regarding the academic job search? Contact Joseph Barber at barberjo@upenn.edu to arrange a special event.
