Documents and Information Needed for Deferred Action Application
Written By: David Bennion, Esq.

Documents needed (bring as many of the following documents as you have)

- 2 passport-style photos (required)
- Identity:
  - Valid passport
  - Birth certificate with certified translation
  - Any national identity document from your country of origin bearing your photo or fingerprint
  - School ID
  - U.S. government ID, whether valid or expired (driver’s license or state ID, work permit, expired visa, etc.)
- Date of entry into U.S., continuous presence in the U.S. for last 5 years, and presence in the U.S. in June 2012:
  - For those who entered with a visa, any date stamps in a passport and/or Form I-94 (the small white card date stamped at entry)
  - Travel records showing your entry into the country (plane ticket or travel itinerary)
  - School records (transcript, report cards, enrollment records, certificates of achievement)
  - Yearbook pages showing your enrollment or presence in school
  - Medical records, including prescriptions and records of any hospitalization
  - Church records (baptism, communion, membership record, etc.)
  - Marriage certificate
  - Birth certificates of any children
  - Social Security card
  - Paystubs from work
  - Signed letter from employer on letterhead with employer contact info describing your position and duties, exact period of employment, and home address at time of employment.
  - Records of any financial transaction (bank account statements, credit card statements, personal checks bearing a dated bank cancellation stamp, ATM receipts, receipts of purchases, paystubs, remittances of money sent to people outside the U.S., etc.)
  - Bills in your name
  - Insurance documents showing you as a policy-holder or beneficiary (auto, home, life, or health insurance)
  - For each year you paid taxes, signed tax returns with W-2 Forms OR call IRS at 800-908-9946 to request free tax transcripts
  - Leases and rent receipts with your name on them
  - Listed as a dependent on parents’ tax returns or beneficiary on parents’ insurance policies
  - Photos at identifiable locations
- Correspondence between you and another person indicating the date and your location (letters, emails, chat records, etc.)
- Any other documents that show entry and/or presence—be creative and don't limit yourself to this list
- Education: High school diploma, GED certificate, or documents showing current enrollment in K-12 school or college. (Certain other records of enrollment in educational programs will be acceptable in the absence of a high school diploma or GED certificate)

Information needed:

- Complete address history since you first arrived in the U.S., including dates of residence at each address
- Name, city, and state of current school or last school attended
- Income:
  - Current annual income
  - Current annual expenses (estimated)
  - Current value of assets