The ADA @ 21: Amended, Reinforced & Clarified
Over the past year there have been new regulations for Titles I, II and III of the ADA; additional rule making proposed; several dear colleague letters have been issued and there has been a renaissance in enforcement. This presentation will provide a brief overview of the changes in the legal environment that highlights the impacts to campus policy and practice. A practical look at the impact on residence halls, documentation policies, technology, and accommodation decision making will provide tools for change.

My Dyslexia
Philip Schultz is a Pulitzer Prize-winning poet and author of the critically acclaimed memoir My Dyslexia. Schultz learned about his dyslexia when his own son was diagnosed in the 2nd grade, and he experienced what many other parents have: the list of his son’s symptoms mirrored his own. Schultz will share his inspiring story of how a boy who did not learn how to read until he was eleven went on to become a prize winning poet by force of sheer determination.
