Transportation from Airport

From the Philadelphia Airport, cabs are available to Center City or Penn's Campus through Philadelphia Taxi Cab Service by calling 215-666-6666. Taxi charge is around $32. A taxi stand is located immediately outside of the baggage claim at each terminal.

The SEPTA Regional Rail runs from the airport to stops at University City and 30th Street Station, both close to Penn's campus; the charge is $8.00 per person. This service provides wheelchair accessible transportation, as well; please see the conductor.

Transportation from 30th Street Station

Amtrak stops at Philadelphia's 30th Street Station, which is a short taxi ride to/from Penn. Taxis are available on the east side of the building. You are also able to travel to Penn on the LUCY, a wheelchair accessible mini-bus that is available from 6:10 am to 7:00 pm (Monday – Friday). Non-Penn individuals will have to pay a fare of $2.00 or a Septa TransPass swipe.

Please call the Weingarten Learning Resources Center at 215-573-9235 to register for the Penn Accessible Transit van. Once registered, call: 215-898-RIDE (7433) to arrange a ride within University City boundaries.
